

RECORD FLEET SAILS IN LARCHMONT RACES

Yachts of All Sizes Numbering 113 Furnish Some Spirited Contest on Sound.

SPARTAN FIRST OF FIFTIES

Thirteen Naval Militia Cutters Furnish Novel Contest—Nepsi Takes Prize for Thirties.

There were 113 yachts in the annual regatta of the Larchmont Yacht Club yesterday and all except four of these sailed. This is the largest list of starters on record in a Fourth of July regatta. The number has only been beaten in the case of the regatta of the Corinthian of Manhasset and Larchmont Yacht clubs. The racing craft ranged in size from the schooner Queen Mab down to the derbies.

Harvey E. Boucher, the chairman; Errol Kerr and Henry L. Maxwell were the committee and they had their hands full from the time the warning signal was made at 1:15 o'clock. At that time it did not look very promising for the regatta, for the wind was very light from the south and the sailing lighter every minute. For this reason, some triangles were selected so that in the event of the wind failing the races could be called at the end of the first round. Before half the fleet had started, however, the wind freshened and blew to the southwest and it held steady until all the yachts had crossed the line.

One novel feature was a race for sailing cutters belonging to the different divisions of the Naval Militia. These heavy cutters were manned by a commissioned or chief petty officer. There were thirteen in the race and in the light wind before the start they had to be towed to the line by the steam launches. They sailed around a triangle of five and a half miles, and the first cutter of the Third Division of the First Battalion won. Lieut. Ruff was in charge of the cutter. The first cutter of the seventh division of the First Battalion took second prize and the first cutter of the First Division of the Second Battalion took third prize. The cutter of the second division of the Second Battalion represented the militia in the management of the race. This race was just a preliminary for three to be sailed during the week, when it is expected that New Jersey and Connecticut will be represented.

The schooners and fifty footers were sailed in a triangle of nine and three-quarters miles, going first to a mark off Parsonage Point, then to Mott's Point, and then home. The schooners started first and at the start the Mott's with a No. 1 jib topped crossed the line first, with Queen Mab next and Venona last. The Queen Mab had a balloon jib topped and a small main topped stay sail and the Venona's light sails were both balloons. The Venona soon pulled by the other two and then while she was sailing away the Mott's and Queen Mab indicated a bluffing match. When they settled down to work the Queen Mab overhauled the Venona and she did well when on the wind. She sailed away from the other two, but could not quite make up the 15 minutes 1 seconds she had to allow the Venona and that yacht won the race. Hendon Club and W. A. Barstow were on the Queen Mab.

W. Butler Duncan sailed the Spartan, Edmund Fish handled the Samur, A. Bryan Allen had charge of the Carolina and J. S. Morgan sailed the Grayling. The Spartan crossed the line at the end with Samur on her weather quarter. The Grayling led at the windward end, with Monroe, Carolina and Carolina following in the order named. On the wind the Spartan and Samur had a good fight, but the Spartan always held the lead, and finally won the race by 2 minutes 34 seconds.

The Ahmakola won the race for the Stamford schooners and the Heron defeated the Eldon in a special race. There were nine of the 20's in the race and at the start the leaders were Okeo, Oriole, Lena and Nepsi. The Nepsi gradually worked into the lead. On this yacht with Johnston de Forest were Robert W. de Forest, his father, and Mrs. Johnston de Forest, his mother. The Nepsi won by four seconds. The Oriole was second and the Okeo third.

There were five starters in the sloop class and the Jovette, owned by Mrs. Edgar Palmer, was the winner. Clifford T. Mahony won the race for the R class with his new yacht Margaret and Commodore W. H. Childs's Jovetta was second, beaten 2 minutes 6 seconds. The Interclub class turned out very strong. There were ten starters. The race was won by A. H. Morris's Wild Thyme and R. P. Clarke's Babette was second.

The Yagu, owned by R. S. Page, won the race for the Indians and the Huibee, another of Commodore Childs's joy fleet, was second. Abbott Brush and Jack Johnson were the crew of the Childs yacht. The Wahnetta fouled the mark boat at the start and was disqualified.

George A. Corry won another prize with his Little Dipper. W. S. Johnson's Vega was second and this time the Neptune, sailed by Charles Davis, was third.

THE TEASER WINS AGAIN.

A. Nesbitt Scores a Victory in the Bay Side Yacht Club Regatta.

Twenty yachts of the fleet of the Bay Side Yacht Club participated in the regatta held yesterday. Four classes were represented and some interesting sport was provided. Archibald Nesbitt scored another victory with the Teaser, and fifteen-year-old John Johns secured his Diana to victory in the butterfly class. A strong southerly breeze enabled the yachts to make fast time. The summaries:

Manor Field Claims Tie Game With Staten Island; Latter Thinks It Is Victor.

DISCREPANCY IN TOTALS

Either 278 or 279, Both Teams Batting Hard—Dalglish Tallies 128.

In more ways than one the meeting between the eleven of the Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club and Manor Field in a championship match of the New York and New Jersey Cricket Association at West New Brighton yesterday proved to be a record breaking game. To begin with the scoring was exceptionally high, both sides getting close to the 300 mark. One of the batsmen, J. Scott Dalglish of Manor Field, passed the century off his own bat in a grand innings of 128. Lastly the result of the match hangs in abeyance until the official score can be scrutinized carefully by the two captains.

This was made necessary by the fact that at the close, when the last Manor Field man was retired on an "lb. w." decision, Staten Island was leading by one run, the total being 279 to 278, and that team was generally understood to have won the game. Upon going over the figures and analysis again a discrepancy of one run was found, with which one of the Manor Field batsmen had not been credited. A tie therefore is claimed by Manor Field, but this question will be decided later. F. C. Taylor also batted in the style for Manor Field for 85, while the high score men for Staten Island were E. H. L. Steinthal, 70; W. Grell, 56; A. W. Arrowsmith, 52; and N. E. Hart, 35.

Another century was scored at West New Brighton in the match between the Benito Mohair team and the New York Veterans, when B. Kortling, playing for the Veterans, carried his bat for 134. The Veterans were declared easily the winners, winning by 116 runs, with three wickets to spare. For the Providence team J. Jager, with top figure man, while W. Whitehead and H. Metcalfe added 23 apiece. The totals were: Benito Mohair, 142; New York Veterans, 258 for seven wickets.

In the championship series of the Metropolitan League the Manhattan were defeated by the Brooklyn, last years champions. The Manhattan played a short handed team and succeeded in running up only 41 runs in their first innings, but in their second attempt at the bat ran up 124 for 7 wickets. Brooklyn scored 208, winning the match by 164 runs. This was due partly to the good bowling on the part of H. Meyer, who took 4 wickets for 8 runs, and H. Rushton, who secured 2 for 18. J. L. Poyer batted well for the winners, quickly running up 62, while Meyer also excelled with the bat in a good innings of 42. Doubles were added also by O. Meyer, E. H. Smith, R. C. M. Brown and T. E. Walter for the winners, while for Manhattan Extras was high score with 14.

A drawn game resulted from the meeting of the Van Cortlandt and the Bronx United teams at Van Cortlandt Park in the championship series. The Bronx United batted first and ran up 137, to which A. A. Thomas contributed 36 and A. A. Thomas 23. Van Cortlandt then went in to bat and ran up 54 for the loss of 9 wickets. When time was called for the day, J. Davis with 12 being the only man to enter the double figure list. As the Bronx United men thought the opposing team took more than the time allowed before sending in each man they declared that they would send in a protest to the next meeting of the Van Cortlandt Park League.

Teal Wins Race for Duck Class.

Port Washington, L. I., July 4.—Fourteen yachts of the duck class sailed a race in the Port Washington Yacht Club regatta this afternoon. The wind was fresh from the southwest. The race was won by Charles E. Hyde's Teal, with W. Trench's Ugly Duckling second, beaten two minutes. The times of the boats were: Teal, 46:00; Ugly Duckling, 48:00; Field Head, 48:45; Cool, 50:00; Ind Runner, 52:00; Widgown, 52:30; Flyer, 52:45; Canvas Back, 53:00; Whistler, 56:15; Ruddy Duck, 56:30; Lama Duck, 56:00; Hell Diver, 57:00; Brownbill, 1:00:00; Web Foot, 1:05:00. In the duck class the Bonita defeated the Tarpon by one minute.

MAXIE WINS FIRST DALZELL CUP RACE

Prize to Go to Yacht Making Best Score in Three Bensonhurst Club Regattas.

ALICE WINS IN Q CLASS

G. Cowenhoven Saunters in Ahead of Other Fat Men in One of Shore Contests.

The members of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club celebrated the Fourth with their annual regatta on Gravesend Bay and an athletic meet on shore.

Fourteen yachts started in the regatta. These sailed in a fresh wind from the south and went first from a line off the clubhouse to Craven Shoal, then to Juey No. 18 and home. They reached to the first mark, beat to the second against the tide and ran home.

There were five starters in the Q class and the star was the Alice, owned and sailed by Gherard Davis. The Alice defeated the Virginia, owned by Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, 1 minute 47 seconds. The Arvin was third.

In the handicap class the M and F finished alone. M and F II defeated the Cyrie in the S class by 1 minute 22 seconds. The Cyrie had a sailer in the knockabout class.

The Star yachts sailed the first race for the Dalzell cup. Three races were to be sailed for this prize, and the yachts that started yesterday are the only ones eligible to finish the competition. The winner will be decided by the point system. W. L. Beaton won the race, with the Maxie and the Shadow was second.

In the games ashore the 100 yard dash was won by Benjamin Donohue, the fat men's race by G. Cowenhoven, and the three legged contest by C. H. Dasher and W. E. Wilson. The obstacle race was won by E. A. Read. A 75 yard dash for women was captured by Miss Viola Davis. Third prize was a cup offered by the commodore. Junior Graham was first in the swimming race.
